The NHSS Narrabri and Women and Children's Refuge provides crisis accommodation services to women and children who have been affected by domestic violence and/or at risk of being homeless.

At the Narrabri Women and Children's Refuge we strive to support women and children who have been affected by domestic violence.

We offer ongoing support and assistance in a neutral and non judgemental environment.
Our staff are trained and have experience in supporting these crisis and maintaining client privacy and confidentiality.

We are committed to preventing homelessness in our community and we will assist our clients in overcoming the obstacles and challenges of domestic violence and homelessness to best support them, while empowering them to reach their full potential.
