The Namoi Toy Library supports childhood development and early education by offering parents and carers a large variety of fun and educational toys, puzzles and games available for hire.

Our Toy Library service outreaches to Wee Waa, Pilliga and Gwabegar fortnightly to cater to for all your age appropriate toy borrows needs.

You can borrow:

- Toys for infants to children ages 6 years
- Large play equipment including ride in cars, seesaws, scooters, pretend play stations
- Duplo and construction sets
- Puzzles and educational games
- Toys specific for sensory developmental needs
- Resources for parents

The Toy Library is open from 9am to 2pm every Thursday

Membership & Borrowing

Toy Library membership is $15 for 12 months
(casual memberships are available)

Toy hire is between $1 and $5 per toy per fortnight

NDCAS Families & Youth Service serves the whole shire. Our family and youth support ranges from one-to-one engagement to small group skills programs. You don't need to be in crisis to access our service, we exist to help expectant parents, sole parents, family groups, and young people (up to 24yrs) navigate life's challenges to achieve their goals.

Busy Little Hands at Play– Supported Playgroup is held at 51 Tibbereena Street, Narrabri on Thursdays (excluding school holidays and public holidays) from 10am until 12pm. Playgroup offers a supportive environment for children and their parents/carers.

At playgroup we provide opportunities for:

- Your child to develop social skills
- Participate in learning activities
- Build relationships with other parents and caregivers
- Receive parenting support and information
- Have fun
